

OUT AND ABOUT

Latest launches... chic showrooms... hot buys...
LAURA HOULDSWORTH takes note

PLUMP IT UP

The new accessories collection from Christopher Farr Cloth includes these jolly cushions. Made in the UK using current and archival designs, with different patterns on each side, they look great mixed. Measuring 56cm square, they cost from £200. 020-7349 0888; christopherfarrcloth.com

SITTING COMFORTABLY

The elegant new 'Petersham' armchair from Rose Uniacke is generous enough to curl up in. Made with a traditional beech frame, it is seen here upholstered in Rose's cotton velvet in java, which is £75 a metre. The armchair costs £4,560, excluding fabric. 020-7730 7050; roseuniacke.com

FLOOR SHOW
 I LOVE THE 'VERGE' RUG, SEEN HERE IN ICE, BY KELLY WEARSTLER FOR THE RUG COMPANY. HAND KNOTTED IN TIBETAN WOOL AND SILK, IT COSTS FROM £3,572 FOR 183 X 122CM. 020-3369 3912; THERUGCOMPANY.COM

CLASSIC CURVES

Available in both oval and round forms, the new oak 'Tiffany' dining table from Julian Chichester has a bleached wash finish and a sunburst top, with brass decorative bands on the base. The round version shown above costs £3,800. 020-7622 2928; julianchichester.com

PLAIN AND SIMPLE

The 'Pure' kitchen from Steinger is seen here with a concrete island and an integrated wooden table. The concrete, which is heat resistant and food safe, can be manufactured with a thickness of just 8mm, so it can be used on moving parts such as drawers. This island costs £57,000. 020-7490 7438; steinger-designers.at

NEWS IN BRIEF And So To Bed has opened a new showroom at 475 Finchley Road, NW3, which is also a Vispring stockist. The on-site sleep experts can help you to find the right bed. 020-7183 5559; andsotobed.co.uk ▷